

to some commercial enterprises which was the claim that the thing was being set up for and we are making it more functional and with that understanding I personally will accept to vote for this amendment because I think he has raised some legitimate arguments.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Newell.

SENATOR NEWELL: Senator Beutler, I'm having a tough time unraveling your amendment and I understand what the one thing does, pulling out acquisition, I understand that. I'm not sure I like it but I understand it. On the other hand, I have a question as to where you were amending my first amendment. You are striking line 8 through semi-colon line 9. Can you help me find the page under which you are doing that so I could read it? What does that do? Could you help me understand what does?

SENATOR BEUTLER: I don't have the page. The only intent is to strike out the acquisition language, Senator Newell. That is all it does.

SENATOR NEWELL: So that is purely the intent is just acquisition then?

SENATOR BEUTLER: That is right.

SENATOR NEWELL: Okay. I am going to follow DeCamp's lead for some strange reason. I urge you to adopt the amendment.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The question is the adoption of the Beutler amendment. Did you wish to close, Senator Beutler? I didn't mean to shut you off. Okay, the question is the Beutler amendment. All in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Please vote. We are going to need your cooperation here for the next half hour or so so we can attempt to either dispose of this bill. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays on adoption of Senator Beutler's first amendment, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The Beutler amendment is adopted. Do you want to read something in, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Mr. President, I have a letter from the Governor addressed to the Clerk. (Read message from the Governor Re: LB 235, 235A as found on page 2364 of the Legislative Journal.)

Senator Nichol would like to print amendments to 126. Senator Wesely would move to reconsider the motion to
